

Please do not weaken Wisconsin's No Call list requirements. I DO NOT want to get calls from my banker or their affiliates. Companies have too much access to our personal lives (and information) already. You should be making it easier, not harder, to protect individual privacy.